

==== Buyer Side ====

For no login user

1. without login we open landing page
2. if user click login or signup page we will display login and sign up
3. when user click the explore catalog button without login then we can display all product
4. whe login is successful then display the product page with sidebar and login user profile
5. when click the product box then display product details
6. when click the side image then display the video and image in the larger frame
7. if user click the get best price button when its not login then redirect the login page
8. when user is not login and click the store name and store city then redirect the landing page
9. when user is not login and click the click here to open button then display the pdf and download that

For login User

1. after login from landing page user get the product page with sidebar and login user profile
2. click on the requirement button user show the requirement page
3. click on the chat button user show the chart page
4. click on the marketplace button user show the shopping page (store catalog)
5. when user click the get best price button then the popup box
6. when the click store name then redirect the shopping page (store catalog)
7. when user get the popup box of best price and then send the data then redirect the chat page

For Chat

1. when click the search button get the search result

For Requirements

1. click on the add requirements then open the form
2. in the form attachment is click then display the choose file option (jpg/jpeg/png)
3. after click the submit button then add data and display it
4. click on the delete button display confirm popup

==> B2B marketplace (Store.enalo.in)

1. On clicking on the link of “store.enalo.in” system will open the page with search btn, category and sub category

==== Seller Side ====

For Catalogue

1. when user click b2b online store button then display 3 btn catalogs, leads and chat
2. when user click catalog button then open the catalog page
3. when user click leads button then open leads page
4. when user click the chat button then open chat page

For Add catalogue

1. when user click Add Catalogue button then display the popup box

For Store catalogue

1. when user click the save button validate the catalog name and then create a catalog
2. click on the share button system create link to share all the catalog or the store and display the popup
3. when user create a catalog in the catalog display the add button when user click this add button then display a form for add item to this catalog
4. click on the click button display edit page
5. in the form user check the price variation (checkbox) then display 2 textbox

For Edit catalogue

1. click on the edit button open the edit page with existing data
2. when user click Edit (catalogue name) icon then open editable input box
3. user click remove button then display confirm popup box
4. when user click item box then display product details
5. when user click edit (item) then display the form with existing data

For Leads

1. click on the leads button open the leads page
2. click on the send quotation button we redirect the chat page

For Chat

1. click on the chat button open the chat page

For Products/Services

1. click on the Products/Services button open the Products/Services page
2. click on the add Products/Services button open the Products/Services page
3. click on the edit button open the Products/Services page with existing data
4. click on the Store status filter button display dropdown menu with listed, not listed, or removed
5. in the form when user check the check box then display another felids